THE NEWSLETTER OF THE LSHPA

OCTOBER, 2022

As the 2022 season nears its conclusion, the season was better than the past two. Although storms didn't interrupt us, the summer months and the economy took its toll on participation in two of our State events. The Mixed Doubles and Louisiana Open were cancelled due to lack of entries, basically due to the heat and high traveling expenses, but we did manage to hold our State Doubles and Singles Tournaments.

Monroe hosted the World Tournament in July, and Louisiana had 32 participants. Four World Champions were crowned from Louisiana. See the results later in this issue. Next year's World Tournament will be held in Lansing, Michigan.

The following officers were reelected for another 2 year term: President Ricky Richard, 2nd Vice President Larry Pertuit, and 3rd Vice President Tim Gilmore.

Most Improved Players of the Year.

Women:	Rene' Reeder	(SHPA)	+ 6.1 points
Men:	Travis Bourdier	(BHPA)	+ 3.6 points
Elders:	Charles Savoy	(CHPA)	+ 2.4 points

These players will receive plaques for their achievement and their 2023 dues will be paid by LSHPA.

The official 2023 season began on October 1, 2022. Players may submit their application and dues to AI or as some did last year, sanction on line. Annual dues are still $30.00.

A reminder: Male players who are, or will reach the age of 65 before December 31, 2023, are eligible to change category from Mens to Elders. (from 40' to 30'). The NHPA has changed the requirements. There are several existing players who qualify to make this change if they elect to do so.

Our membership for 2022 was 115 players.

Members by Club:

BHPA 35    CHPA 25    SHPA 20    HHPA 20    NELA 15

Eddie Guidry and AI will need input from ALL Clubs concerning their proposed schedule of Tournaments for 2023. Please respond ASAP and include all events you intend to host.

The State events in 2023 are scheduled to be hosted as follows:

Mixed Doubles	Waggaman (Harahan)
Doubles	Welsh
Louisiana Open	Patterson
Singles	Monroe

Unfortunately, the Shreveport Club will not host any Tournaments in 2023. We hope they can reorganize and get back on a regular schedule soon.

Looking forward to a successful 2023 season.

Ricky Richard
LSHPA President

AI Dodson
LSHPA Sec/Treas.
